

Mehgie Tabar is Consultant to the California State Senate Housing Committee, chaired by Senator Scott Wiener (D-San Francisco).

Before joining the Committee, Ms. Tabar worked at the California Department of Housing and Community Development as the Data and Research Manager and a Senior Housing and Community Development Specialist, where she led, managed, and implemented Public Lands for Affordable Housing Development programs, the Statewide Housing Plan, and the Housing Data Strategy.

Prior to working with the State of California, Ms. Tabar worked for consulting firms in Denver and San Francisco, where she worked directly with communities, developers, and local, regional, and state governments on federally required housing needs studies, consolidated and strategic plans, policy and regulation compliance, and housing market studies.

Ms. Tabar is an AICP-Certified planner and holds a Master of Urban and Regional Planning degree from University of California, Irvine and bachelor's degrees in Environmental Studies and Fine Art from University of California, Santa Cruz.